ANOTHER BILL INTRODUCED

NEW YORK ASSEMBLYMAN CUVILLIER PRE-SENTS MEASURE TO DEFINE BOOKMAKING

Feels Confident That Both Bills Will Be Enacted Into Law During Present Session of Legislature at Albany.

Albany, N. Y., February 23.—Senator Gittins' bill of last year, which proposed to amend the penal law by defining bookmaking without writing to mean the laying or publishing of odds to all comers or to the public at race meetings, was introduced in the Assembly by Lonis A. Cuvillier yesterday.

Last week Mr. Cuvillier reintroduced the Gittins bill designed to relieve directors of race track and county fair associations from liability for gambling on their premises without their knowledge.

Mr. Cuvillier declared today that he felt sure both bills would pass, He has addressed a letter to Calvin J. Huson, Commissioner of Agriculture; William H. Vary, president of the State Grange, and George W. Sisson, president of the State Agriculture Society, asking them to consider the directors' liability bill and suggest any amendments. Assemblyman Cuvillier in his communication says:

"I am creditably informed that the agricultural societies and State Grange are in favor of some amendment to the existing drastic statute relieving owners and directors of the criminal liability of the violation of the law, of which they have no personal knowledge.

"I desire to state that in handling this legislation violation of the law, of which they have no personal knowledge.

"I desire to state that in handling this legislation I am well acquainted with its past history, as I have been a member of the Codes Committee, to which this legislation has been referred in the past, and I have always felt that the agriculturist and farmer should be the ones to be consulted in reference to horse breeding and horse racing in this state, and in promoting this legislation I want everything connected with it to be in the open, so that the people of the state may know the real interest behind it. I do not desire and will not tolerate any secrecy or lobbying connected with any legislation that bears my name."

ECHOES OF THE SPORTSMEN'S DINNER AND OTHER TIMELY GOSSIP FROM THE EAST

New York, February 23.—Now that the Sportsmen's Dinner at the Waldorf-Astoria on the night of the 19th is over, and the echoes of much that was said there by the score of speeches have reached to every part of the United States, a short reference to some of the wonderfully effective work done preparatory to the dinner by that human dynamo. Harry W. Smith of Worcester, Mass., with the co-operation of scores of well-wishers, is only simple justice. So complete was the success of that memorable dinner, and so far-reaching may be its effects, that some attention in Daily Racing Form to its promoters and supporters is deemed timely. It was not until the 200 guests or participants reached the Waldorf that evening that anything like a fair idea of what had been done was seen. Then it was that the decorations and adjuncts of the affair were seen. All the well-known racing colors were shown at points of vantage. Many trophies were on exhibition, the most notable being the solid gold "cup" won by James R. Keene 's Foxhali at Ascot in 1882, and since then the most valued racing memento owned by Mr. Keene. So highly was it valued that it has not for years been at his well-known office in Broad street, but has been in his vault in the Equitable Building which was burned down some weeks ago. When the indefatigable Harry Smith went to get the cup to show it at the dinner, Mr. Keene told him that it was still in the ruins, and men were hard at work digging out the debris, so that the thirty-year-old trophy should be shown to the guests at the dinner. It is the most beautiful piece of work ever seen, and it was no wonder that a few years ago, when the racfor the cup was to be run at Ascot, and the trophy for that year was shown on the lawn there, that either its intrinsic or artisctic value tempted some person. For it is a matter of record that the gold cup of that year was shown on the lawn there. That we have the proper since been.

Before the toastmaster, Mr. Smith, called the guests to their seats, they spent hours in inspe person, for it is a matter of record that the gold cup of that year was stolen and has never since been seen.

Before the toastmaster, Mr. Smith, called the guests to their seats, they spent hours in inspecting the hundreds of mementos gathered for this occasion, at no little expense, and at some risk, which was, however, offset by insurance. Among those who, besides Mr. Keene, also sent or loaned trophies, were of course the Messrs. August and Perry Belmont, Harry Payne Whitney, Henry T. Peters, A. C. 14all, C. C. Rumsey (a sculptor the married Miss Harriman), Ed Wenrick, John E. Madden, the Coney Island Jockey Club, and others. Mr. Peters' collection of rare books and prints appertaining to sport and racing is declared to be the most complete of any in this country.

The most perfect democracy prevailed at the dinner. Everyone felt at home. The famous veteran trainers and old-time jockeys, Charles Littlefield and Jacob Pincus, were at one table, and only a few feet away were some of the greatest financiers of the age. Men interested in all grades of horseflesh uningled freely in groups until scated. Gray-haired turf journalist Hamilton Busbey, sat at the same table with his younger turf commentator, black-haired Gurney Gue. At other tables the entire metropolitan turf press were scated. Every word uttered by the distinguished speakers was eagerly listened to. That Gen. Leonard Wood should have been uproarously applauded when he emphasized the poverty of horseflesh suitable for military purposes was only natural. Mr. August Belmont was only living up to form in announcing the formation of the "United States Cavalry and Artillery Remount Association," to which everyone in the dining hall subscribed, with nominal dues of $2. Horace White, once lieutenant-governor, and then for a short period governor, who is a well-known breeder of trotting horses, made a strong speech, but found few to agree with him in his assertion that little progress had been made in the improvement of the dronough-tody white the trotter an bred are at this moment preparing some statistics which Mr. White will read with interest.

bred are at this moment preparing some statistics which Mr. White will read with interest.

It may interest those who see only the "gambling" feature of racing to know that at this Sportsmen's Dinner some of the men down to make speeches were Theodore N. Vail, president of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company; Paul D. Cravath, famous lawyer for the traction interests; Charles W. Bosworth, a multi-millionaire banker of Springfield, Mass., who is an intense admirer of the saddle horse; F. K. Sturgls, who for many years has been closely identified with J. Pierpont Morgan; Oakleigh Thorne, also a great banker sportsman; W. A. Hazard and Devereux Milburn, noted polo players, and others, while of the 200 guests it was a notable fact that the so-called "professional" racing men were so few and the amateurs so largely in the majority, that old racegoers commented on it. And yet it is a hopeful sign of the better days dawning for the horse that such was the case. If 200 representative men from various parts of the union fail to interest the government, national and state, in the peril that confronts the breeding of the horse, then the cause is hopeless.

It is an insult to the intelligence of such influential various parts of the union fail to interest the government, national and state, in the peril that confronts the breeding of the horse, then the cause is hopeless.

It is an insult to the intelligence of such influential men to think that they can remain passive after they had realized the full effect of Mr. Belmont's all-embracing figures—that in the last five years certificates of export had been issued for 2,292 thoroughbred horses, all driven out of America by the anti-racing laws. That the good work of the Breeding Bureau was bearing fruit was seen by the statistics read by F. K. Sturgis, one of the founders of the Jockey Club, to wit: "Produce of the Breeding Bureau stallions now number 1885, in the short period of four years, to say nothing of hundreds lost sight of which had never been reported to the bureau. As many as sixty-nine different thoroughbred stallions had dene duty in the state in the past few years at a nominal fee." Mr. Sturgis, who is a devotee of the four-in-hand, incidentally stated that he had himself bred from a trotting stallion and a thoroughbred mare ideal horses for use in the army of the very type which General Wood had declared necessary.

Perry Belmont, as is well known, is really the originator of the race for military horses which are now so frequently seen at all hunt meetings. He long ago foresaw such a necessity as now contronts the army and thought that the most practical way to prove that the thoroughbred was the ideal for the army was by having them raced in public and the best of them shown to the world.

As the evening's proceedings advanced, the toastmaster had thrown upon a screen many pictures, among them that of Persimmon, the late King Edward's Derby winner; the renowned trotters The Harvester, and Hamburg Belle; various scenes at Piping Rock and at Brookline in which well-known young society women and girls were seen riding races, a picture of Lord North, a famous English hunting man whose advice to his grandchildren was on the first August Belimont, the second A

To this the present writer can also testify. That at least one of his sons is destined to follow in his footsteps in his tastes for sport is well known, for Raymond Belmont is an indefatigable gentleman rider, a real lover of the horse-for himself alone, a dog fancier, has just been elected a director of the Horse Show Association, is his father's inseparable companion, and is one of the most popular of the many young New York men interested in sport. "It is a pity that this sportsman's gallery or exhibition of trophies is not permanently located in some place where the populace can be brought into close touch with it," he said to the writer.

One of the breeders of thoroughbreds I saw at the dinner was Henry T. Oxnard, owner of a stock farm in Virginia which is rapidly looming up as one of the largest and most important in America. It is only simple justifie to Mr. Oxnard to say that, while many other breeders lave felt compeled to "shorten sail" and reduce the number of their broodmares and stallions, Mr. Oxnard, on the contrary, has steadily increased his until now he is one of the most liberal nominators in the Futurity, which closed recently. One of his stallions is Fayette, which John E. Madden on Monday night said was a great stayer and better race horse than generally regarded.

Mr. Madden, by the way, declared that he is in a position to answer or contradict any remarks made by English critics upon the eligibility of American horses to the English Stud Book. 'If they carry out the lidea to its logical conclusion and we keep on exporting to England, the time will come when a man who buys the Engliand to the purchasing an incomplete publication because so many American horses will not be included.''

Book. If they carry out the idea to its logical conclusion and we keep on exporting to England, the time will come when a man who buys the English Stud Book will be purchasing an incomplete publication because so many American horses will not be included."

Mr. Madden was asked the reason why none of his mares entered in the 1914 Futurity were mated with Plandit, sire of King James and Plate Glass. He said that he had leased the stallion to J. N. Camden for 1911 and to Catesby Woodford again for 1912, and that Mr. Camden had failed to enter any marces of the Faturity. Speaking about his recent sale of five two-year-olds to Lord Decies. Mr. Madden said that when he was approached by an agent of the gentieman named, he asked "Who is Lord Decies?" "Why," replied the agent, "haven't you got a 'Burke's Peerage? You will find out all about Lord Decies in that publication." "Well," answered Mr. Madden, "he's got nothing on me. He can find out all about me in Bradstreet's." The sale was made and since then Mr. Madden has purchased a "Burke's Peerage," for he says it may come in very useful, as he is ready to sell the product of Hamburg Place to any nobleman in Great Britain.

Speaking of Lord Decies, he has every right to develop racing tastes. He has inherited them. Not long ago he married a daughter of George J. Gould. Long before that he had raced in India and Great Britain. His scarlet jacket had been frequently in front, Pickering, his trainer, is a brother to the Pickering who some years ago rode for L. O. Appleby and Louis Stuart, and had the mount in some races on their Brooklyn Derby winner of 1892. Patron, which, however, was ridden by Hayward in that great contest.

Lord William Beresford, the latter being the one man (except himself) to whom "Tod" Sloan owed so much of his success on the English turf, for it was Lord William who gave him so much riding for the Rancocas-bred horses which Pierre Lorillard annually bred in New Jersey and raced in England with noteworthy success. No doubt it will be recalled th ber). John Huggins could, if he would, tell many interesting stories of those great days when he dominated the English training world by his astounding successes with horses bred not only in England but in America.

Because he and Jacob Pincus are the only two Americans who have ever trained the winner of the Epson Derby, I thought it a proper thing for Harry W. Smith to invite them to the Sporismen's Dinner. Mr. Huggins is in Texas, but Jacob Pincus was at the dinner in company with his sprightly friend. Charles Littlefield (now seventy-seven years old), who, because he rode the winner of the first King's Plate in Canada more than fifty years ago, I thought was also a fit man to see honored with an invitation. Both Messrs, Littlefield and Pincus now reside at or near the Sheepshead Bay course. As a matter of fact, Mr. Pincus lives in one of the small buildings a few feet from the great stable which shelters Fitz Herbert, Zeus, Novelty and the other horses owned by Charles Kohler.

The latter was due to arrive here today from England. As you already know, Hildreth has asked to be released from his engagement to train in England for Mr. Kohler. It is expected by shrewd turfmen that if racing is re-established in New York state, Mr. Kohler may conclude to keep his string of horses here, in which case they would no doubt be trained and ridden by Hildreth and Shiiling, which would not be the case if the horses were sent abroad. As a matter of fact, Mr. Kohler, who is extremely practical in a business way, would be doing not only a sensible, but a patriotic thing by keeping his stable here if racing is re-established. The drawing attractions of good horses must appeal to those who own the race courses, and when Mr. Belmont, Mr. Wilson, Mr. Miller, Mr. Dwyer and Mr. Butler get at Mr. Kohler and ask him not deprive America of so good a stable, he is very likely to yield, even though his preliminary expenditures incidental to his contemplated racing campaign abroad have already run up in the thousands, counting his for

AN OLD - FASHIONED COUP

JOE STEIN THE MEDIUM OF A "KILLING" OF CONSIDERABLE PROPORTIONS.

Owner of Colt Goes to Considerable Lengths to Hoodwink Work Watchers at Palmetto Park-Jessup Burn Only Winning Favorite.

Charleston, S. C., February 23,—A coup of no mean proportious was put over in the fifth race at Palmetto Park today when Joe Stein led home an ordinary band of platers. According to beport, the plans for the killing were well laid and the facts concerning the coit's good condition were somewhat concealed. Ed. W. Moore, his owner and trainer, to throw off the clockers and prevent the colt's identity being known, disguised him with a bread white stripe from eyes to nostrils on the occasion of his last preliminary trial. The trial was an exceptionally good one, and to further throw the workwatchers off the scent, the colt was taken to a vacant stable near the navy yard, several miles from the track, where he was cooled out, and afterwards he was returned to his stable at the track during the night. In some fashion an inkling of the colt's fast work and his owner's contemplated coup leaked out and the price ruled far short of his connections' expectations. Joe Stein indulged Arbutus with the lead until well into the stretch, then came away to an easy victory.

Moderate weather and improved track conditions served to make the sport enjoyable. A big attendance was on hand, Surprises developed frequently, only one favorite scoring. This was in the second race, when Jessup Burn led home some useful sprinters. The running of the third race caused some criticism, due to the confident fashion in which Spohn had been supported and his subsequent good showing and the failures of Jawhone and Tay Pay. The latter, particularly, raced poorly and brought up far back. Bard of Hope took the purse after leading from barrier rise to failsh.

Jessup Burn changed owners after his vistory in the second race. Entered to be sold for $500, he was boosted to $900 by R. F. Carman, who secused him at that price. A seiling race fend is on here between S. A. Clopton and R. F. Carman, and they are running up each other's horses in all selling races.

are running up each other's horses in all selling races.

Jockey Skirvin was fined $25 by the stewards for rough riding in the sixth race. Skirvin had the mount on Detect. Going to the first turn, he crowded his opposition on the inside fence.

Quality Street, which fell during the running of the second race yesterday, injured her stifle and was destroyed this morning.

While being worked this morning, Madrigalian, in the stable of Capt. P. M. Walker, stepped into a hole and fell, injuring himself severely. Jockey Comors, who was in the saddle, was so shaken up that he was unable to ride this afternoon.

The greatly improved condition of the track this morning brought out many racers, some of which were worked for the first time in several days. The "dogs" were placed along the inner rail, which accounts for the slow time made in the trials, the horses being forced to run in the middle of the track all the way. Some of the best trials were:

ANOTHER DEAD HEAT AT JUAREZ.

Enfield and Irish Gentleman Finish So Close Together Judges Cannot Separate Them.

El Paso, Tex., February 23.—The second dead heat of the Juarez season occurred today in the handicap that was the feature event, Enfield and Irish Gentleman coming under the eyes of the judges so close together that they were unable to separate them. Sebago, the favorite, went to the front early, and Vanir, the big three-year-old half-brother to Doctor Leggo, was lapped on him to the stretch turn. Enfield was reserved in the early part and made his move at the head of the stretch. When Sebago and Vanir went wide he was forced to run around the two leaders. Gross, who was waiting with Irish Gentleman, quickly grasped the opportunity and drove his mount through along the rail, saving considerable ground.

Sebago and Vanir both began to weaken at the sixteenth post and Irish Gentleman forged to the front, but only for a moment, as Enfield came with a terrific rush and the pair went under the wire nose and nose. Three favorites rewarded the public today and the layers did not win anything, as most of the horses that won received strong backing.

C. P. Lamar, the owner of Crossover and Millo, was warned off the Juarez track today. He is charged with having approached jockey Gross in an improper manner. He is alleged to have stated to Gross that he generally gave $50 to jockeys who rode to his orders, Gross is said to have replied that he rode to the best of his ability. Stewards C. F. Price and M. J. Winn, after close investigation, expressed themselves as satisfied that Mr. Lamar's intent was improper.

Charles Bogan, manager of C. W. Clark's stable returned from New Orleans today and has engaged John Lowe to train the stable.

Jockey Frasch was unseated at the post by Frewill, and in falling he was stunned and was unconscious for ten minutes, Recovering, he rode his mount out, but canceled the rest of his engagements for the day.

John Griffin II., after winning the fifth race, was bid up $400 over his entered price by Weber & McDonald but was retained by D. C. Cottle

Went to post at 3:51. At post 1 minute. Start good and slow. Won driving; third the same, ENFIELD was taken back in the early running and came extremely wide when entering the stretch, losing considerable ground, but finished fast. IRISH GENTLEMAN was also reserved in the early running and, when the leaders swung wide on the turn into the stretch, hugged the rail and wore the leaders down, but could not outstay ENFIELD. SEBAGO made the running at a fast pace, but began to tire when an eighth out. VANIR ran lapped on SEBAGO to the stretch and also tired in the final drive.

FREE PARLAY White-Monday-Meet-Lower-Mink-Mica-White. Tuesday-Mezzo-Maize-Meanting-Mini-BETTORS!

The Successful Man is he who is able to judge and and take advantage of a good opportunity when it presents itself. Here is one. Nobody interested in racing should fail to investigate it. It will not cost you anything in advance. This announcement caters particularly to those who have bought information before and been dissatisfied with results. What I have to offer to you is something entirely different from anything you have ever had before.

PAY AFTER YOU WIN

I do not ask you for a penny in advance. All I want you to do is to send me One Dollar to assure me that you will accept the telegrams that I will send you and you can deduct same from my first wire. The proposition is this: Send me the winnings of a Five Dollar bet, average odds, the next day. Send the winning money by wire at my expense.

I have been informed by my connections that will be cut loose for the MONEY at Charleston. I am in a position to give the readers of this paper and all my subscribers REAL INSIDE INFORMATION on HOREES that have been secretly prepared for BIG CLEAN UPS. The awakening of SLEEPERS will cause excitement among the BOOKMAKERS and only the KOERNER CLIENTS will have the word. My connections have also informed me that among these 5 GOOD THINGS they expect some like

Amoret, 30-1, Won

The above horse was given out by me to all my clients and filed with this newspaper. This looks like the chance of a lifetime for you to string your money with the smartest bunch of operators on the turf. You quite understand that it is impossible for me to come out point blank and tell every detail connected with my inside affairs, otherwise I would only be pleased to do so. If you are wise you will take advantage of this offer. These THESE FIVE GOOD THINGS ARE SCHEDULED TO START AS FOLLOWS:

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 28 SATURDAY, MARCH 2 TUESDAY, MARCH 5 THURSDAY. MARCH 7 SATURDAY, MARCH 9

My information comes from men who are familiar with every move of the game—men who make a study of the minutest details. When you receive the name of a horse from me you may rest assured that there is some definite cause for reasonable expectations. So carefully has everything been concealed that a Long Price is assured. On form these horses do not seem to have even a look-in, and everything connected with these Good Things has been kept as secret as possible. There is no telling how long the odds will be.

I WANT TO CONVINCE YOU

That's why I make this proposition to you. I figure that the advertising benefit after these horses come out and make good will be worth thousands of dollars to me. It will convince one and all that I can actually furnish them with winning information. I want to get acquainted with good players and I take this means of convincing them in the quickest and most effective manner, by actually giving you unknown sleepers and pulling off coups at long odds.
